Changing Lives

"She has the biggest, kindest heart, full of compassion and grace" are words used when asked to describe this month's Changing Lives volunteer Bonnie Gehrt Davis.

Adoption Corner

Most of us know Bonnie as the creative genius

Beautiful seven-month-old Bailey, a puppy mill rescue, has been in our home for only five days and he has already mastered the art of climbing up and down the steep steps. He walks, albeit awkwardly, on a leash to follow his beloved pal and mentor, ten-year-old Magee, the schnoodle. He follows her over to us and will let us touch him under his chin and take a treat. He allows himself to be picked up and placed on the sofa right next to me where I can pet him gently.

He is quite cooperative in the tub and seems to enjoy his bath, as well as a gentle brushing. He sleeps all night in his crate and immediately "goes" outside if you get him right out.

Bailey is a chocolate parti Havanese with gorgeous hazel eyes, weighing 15.5 lbs. The colors in his head are an array of cinnamon, chocolate, Bonnie draws, knits and crochets.

HRI has been lucky to have had this dedicated volunteer for the past six years, where she not only serves as the calendar committee chair but handles all store ads. In addition, she served as state contact for Pennsylvania and as board member secretary.

Bonnie, a retired medical office manager, lives in PA with her husband Gary. They have a son, Michael, and two grandchildren, Flint and Oona.

They have an RV at the Delaware shore where they spend many weekends relaxing and fishing. She is an avid gardener and chocolate lover. She is known to risk life and limb for a bag of Wilbur Chocolates. She is also mom to two lucky Havanese, Morgan and HRI wonder dog Vivi. Four-month-old Vivi came to HRI and Bonnie in April of 2010, hydrocephalic and immobile, with vision and gastrointestinal issues. She will require a lifetime of daily medication for brain fluid accumulation. Vivi earned a place in Bonnie's heart and a forever home with her scarlet, rust, cream, black, making him quite a magnificent-looking dog. His paws suggest that he will be a large Hav. He loves to play with toys and is a very eager eater.

An adopter who is experienced with puppy mill dogs, or fully understands the issues involved, will have a happy dog to work with. Are you ready to take on this adventure?
